Classification Procedures:
Kansas statutes and the Kansas Board of Regents govern tuition classification. Classification is a complex process, which can require extensive documentation. Please read the application carefully. Be certain to answer all questions and to attach all requested documentation (see Documentation section above). Failure to complete the application properly can delay a decision in your case, result in an inaccurate decision and may invalidate your application. In reviewing the application, the Assistant University Registrar in the Office of the University Registrar considers the individual situation as presented on the application, and assesses it in relation to Kansas statutes and Board of Regents articles. The burden of proof, as represented in documentation attached to the application, lies upon the student. This burden includes provision of convincing evidence of intent to remain in Kansas indefinitely after attendance at the University of Kansas. A decision will generally be reached within 14 working days after an application has been submitted. The student will receive written notification of the decision via e-mail message or by regular mail.

Appeal Procedures:
If the application is denied, the student has 30 days from the date of the denial letter to submit an appeal to the Residence Appeal Committee. An appeal form will be provided with the denial letter. The committee is made up of 3-5 staff and faculty members of the University who meet periodically to review the outstanding appeals for the Committee. The Committee follows Kansas statutes and Board of Regents residency articles. Appeal dates can be determined by contacting the Assistant University Registrar and appeals should be submitted to the Office of the University Registrar in 151 Strong Hall. The Committee meeting is an open public meeting and the student who submits an appeal to the committee will be notified of the time and date of the appeals meeting. The decision reached by the Residence Appeals committee is the final determination made by the University of Kansas. If the appeal is denied, the student has 30 days from the date the denial letter was received to file an appeal with District Court.
